Email Appending

Because Email is Still King When it comes to Building Strong Relations with Leads and For That You Need Correct Inboxes.

Replace old and outdated emailing addresses in your database and CRM to roll out effective digital marketing campaigns using Google Ads, Facebook Ads, LinkedIn Ads and email marketing.

Phone Number Appending

Because Tele Calling is Meaningless if You Don't Have Correct Phone Numbers to Reach and Convince Leads.

Along with a list of email IDs accurately matched with the names, job titles and current company details, you can now get your prospects' direct dial numbers or phone numbers for tele calling.

Postal Address Appending

Because You Don't Want Marketing Brochures to Land in the Wrong Postal Address While Your Lead is in a Different Location.

This data appending service is especially useful for marketers who want to instill a sense of trust by sending direct mailer communication, company magazines, or brochures to prospects.

Social ID Appending

Because Multi-Channel Marketing is Not an Option, but an Imperative if You Want to Reach Customers on the Channels Where They Are Active.

Social Data Appending is what you need to add social information to your leads data so that your omni-channel campaign spends are not wasted in impressions and clicks that are irrelevant.

Company Details Appending

Because You Want to Target Only Those Companies that Have the Budget and Need for Your Products and Services

Add the company name in the database of your leads with their official email addresses matching your targets current organization to help sales in their prep before contacting the customer.

Job Title Appending

Because Your Targets will be Won over by Competition if You Show No Interest in Their Current Professional Details

With the email addresses matched to your prospective leads' current organization, you can also add more information about their new role and job title to adapt your communication.

Reverse Appending

Because You Want to Hyper-Personalize Your Campaigns Even if All You Have is a Single Data Like an Email Address of Your Lead.

Top-up your email records with the phone numbers and correct names, updated job roles, postal address, phone numbers or any custom technographic data that you require.
